Book- Life of Muhammad (pbuh)

THE MESSAGE OF ISLAM

When tyranny reached its extreme limit the Prophet (sa) assembled his followers, and pointing to the west told them of a land across the sea where men were not murdered because of a change of faith, where they could worship God unmolested, and where there was a just king. Let them go there; maybe the change would bring them relief. A party of Muslim men, women and children, acting on this suggestion, went to Abyssinia. The migration was on a small scale and very pathetic. The Arabs regarded themselves as keepers of the Ka'ba, and so they were. To leave Mecca was for them a great wrench, and no Arab could think of doing so unless living in Mecca had become absolutely impossible. Nor were the Meccans prepared to tolerate such a movement. They would not let their victims escape and have the least chance to live elsewhere. The party, therefore, had to keep its preparations for the journey a close secret and to depart without even saying good-bye to their friends and relations. Their departure, however, became known to some and did not fail to impress them. 'Umar (ra), subsequently the Second Khalifah of Islam, was still a disbeliever, a bitter enemy and persecutor of Muslims. By sheer chance, he met some members of this party. One of these was a woman, Ummi 'Abdullah (ra). When 'Umar (ra) saw household effects packed up and loaded on animals, he understood at once that it was a party leaving Mecca to take refuge elsewhere. "Are you going?" he asked. "Yes, God is our witness," replied Ummi 'Abdullah (ra). "We go to another land, because you treat us most cruelly here. We will not return now until Allah pleases to make it easy for us." 'Umar (ra) was impressed and said, "God be with you." There was emotion in his voice. This silent scene had upset him. When the Meccans got to know of it, they sent a party in chase. This party went as far as the sea but found that the Muslims had already embarked. Not being able to overtake them, they decided to send a delegation to Abyssinia to excite the king against the refugees and to persuade him to hand them over again to Meccans. One of the delegates was 'Amr bin al-'As (ra), who later joined Islam and conquered Egypt. The delegation went to Abyssinia, met the king and intrigued with his court. But the king proved very firm and, in spite of the pressure which the Meccan delegation and his own courtiers were able to put upon him, he refused to hand over the Muslim refugees to their persecutors.

Teacher Notes:

1. Pick a tiff to read the story
2. Ask questions about the details of the story to see if the Atfal were paying attention
3. Ask Atfal what they took away from the story
4. Encourage Atfal to read books by the Promised Son (ra)

ACTIVITY & DISCUSSION SECTION

Discussion: [Jalsa Salana UK 2021]

- 4 to 5 points to get the Atfal going about the subject.

Teacher Notes:
1. This is the main part of the lesson! Make sure you engage the Atfal and get their side of the story as well
2. Do your own research prior to the lesson so that you are comfortable with the topic
3. Perhaps, you can narrate an interesting story for the Atfal
4. Spend around 15 minutes on this

Jalsa Salana UK 2021

- How will you be spending your time during Jalsa this year?
- What is the purpose of Jalsa Salana?
- What are some of the activities you will miss in Jalsa this year because of Covid-19?
- (Any other Jalsa related questions to get the Atfal to share their thoughts for the upcoming Jalsa)

Q/A Session

Ask us Anything!

- In this section we aim to try and answer the contemporary questions the Atfal might have
- This section is strictly informal
- We must engage the Atfal, and make them feel like this is a safe place to talk about their questions.
- They can anonymously share questions in the chat if they wish to.

Teacher Notes:

1. You can also take this time to talk to Atfal about something that you would like to draw their attention towards.
2. Ask for how the classes are going/have been
For Example: Did you enjoy this week's Salaat and Logo quizzes?
3. Record these down somewhere to send to the creator of TLPs
