THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

TOPIC:

“3 Ashra’s of Ramadan!”

WHAT IS AN ASHRA?

- Ashra is the Arabic word for the number 10.
- This means that the blessed month of Ramadan is split into 3 sections, each of which last 10 days.
- Each of the 3 Ashras have something special that we should focus on in those ten days i.e Mercy, Forgiveness and Salvation from Hell but this does not mean that after a set of ten days have passed by, we should stop focusing on them and move onto the next one.

FIRST ASHRA OF RAMADAN SEEKING MERCY FROM ALLAH

5 Acts of Worship During Ramadan

1. Offering Tahajjud and Nawafil prayers

2. Performing Tarawih prayers:

3. Reciting the Quran

4. Making du'a (Supplication)

5. Giving charity

FIRST ASHRA OF MERCY

- In the first ten days of Ramadan, our aim as Ahmadi Muslims is to try and attain the Mercy of Allah the Almighty.
- The Arabic word for “Mercy” is رحم and one of the attributes of Allah the Almighty is الرحيم meaning “The Most Merciful” which appears a total of 425 times in the Holy Qu’ran.
- Therefore, we should make an effort to continuously pray by using this Attribute of Allah.
- Each Ashra has its own specific prayers which we are urged to recite as frequently as possible and the prayer for the First Ashra is as follows:

وَقُلْ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ وَارْحَمْ وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الرَّحِيمِينَ

“And say, ‘My Lord, forgive and have mercy, and Thou art the Best of those who show mercy.’”

(The Holy Quran, Surah Al Mu’minoan, 23:119)

SECOND ASHRA OF MERCY

- In the middle ten days of Ramadan, we should make an effort to seek Allah's forgiveness for any sins that we may have committed from the previous Ramadan till now.
- We prostrate to Allah the Almighty because we may have taken part in things that have led us to the wrong path and now we seek his help and guidance to forgive us so that we may tread back onto the right path.
- Mistakes happen with anyone but the most important thing is that we learn from them and seek forgiveness from them so that we do not commit the same mistakes in the future.
- The specific prayer for the second set of ten days is as follows:

أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ رَبِّي مِنْ كُلِّ ذَنْبٍ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ

"I seek forgiveness from Allah, my Lord, for all my sins, and turn towards Him."

THIRD ASHRA OF SALVATION

- Salvation is the religious concept of being saved from sin.
- This means that in the last ten days of Ramadan, our main focus is saving ourselves from Hell.
- Our main focus is to enter Heaven and that is why we have to make sure that in order to be saved, we seek forgiveness and the love of Allah for this to happen.
- Both the second and the third Ashra are very similar and require seeking forgiveness from Allah the Almighty.
- The specific prayer for the last ten days of Ramadan is as follows:

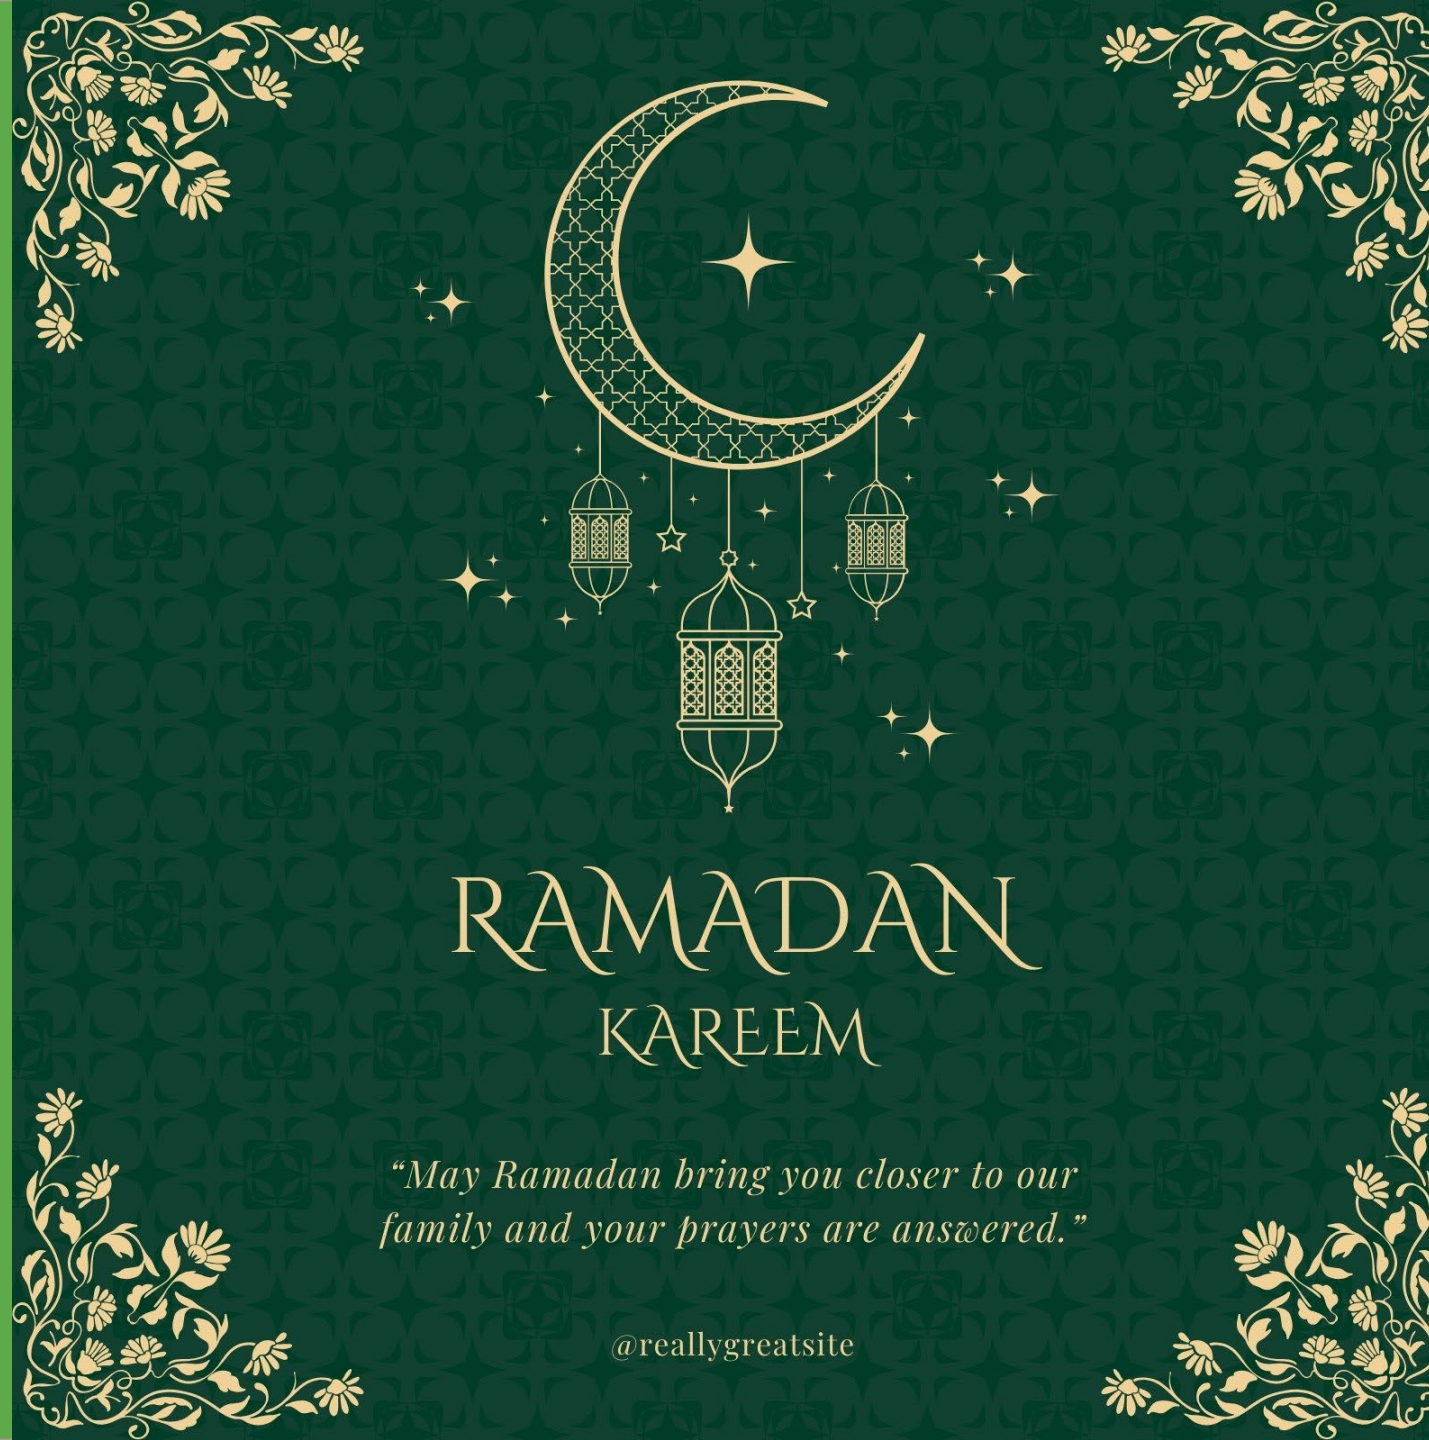

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ عَفُوفٌ تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ فَاعْفُ عَنِّي

“O Allah, You are Most Forgiving, You love forgiveness; so forgive me.”

FRIDAY SERMON

FRIDAY SERMON

The Holy Prophet Muhammad (saw) - The Perfect Herald of Divine Unity

Meeting the Monk Bahira

Once, during a trip to Syria with his uncle, the young Muhammad (sa) was met by a Christian priest named Bahira. Bahira asked a question, to which the young Muhammad (sa) replied, 'Do not speak to me about Lat or Uzza. By God, I despise nothing more than them.'

Refusal of an Oath to Idols

The Holy Prophet (sa) went to Syria with the wealth of Hazrat Khadijah (ra) for the purposes of trade. During this time, there arose a dispute between the Holy Prophet (sa) and another man on a certain matter. To this, the other man told the Holy Prophet (sa) to swear by Lat and Uzza. The Holy Prophet (sa) replied, 'I have never sworn by these idols. In fact when I pass by them I turn away.'

Encouragement on Tahajjud

The Holy Prophet (sa) was indeed given a message for the entire world. But here, God instructs that in conveying that message, the Holy Prophet(sa) should start with his own home, with his own family, as they too were going astray like others, and by virtue of being his family, their forefathers had done some good towards the Holy Prophet (sa). Thus, it was only right that the Holy Prophet (sa) convey this lifesaving message to them.
