THE EXISTENCE OF GOD

The Acceptance of Prayers

وَإِذَا سَأَلَكَ عِبَادِي عَنِّي فَإِنِّي قَرِيبٌ أُجِيبُ
دَعْوَةَ الدَّاعِ إِذَا دَعَانِ

'And when My servants ask thee about Me, say: 'I am near. I answer the of the supplicant when he to Me.' (The Holy Quran, 2:187)

STEP BY STEP ARGUMENT

- 01 Millions of people pray to God, asking for help
- 02 Their prayers are fulfilled, often just as requested
- 03 There must be a God answering their prayers

Belief in the Unseen

Saying God doesn't exist just because He cannot be seen is not a logical argument.

There are many things we cannot see—like wind or gravity—but we still believe in them because we can clearly see their effects.

In the same way, Allah can be recognised through His effects, one of the greatest being the acceptance of prayers.

God Doesn't Speak Anymore

Many people have made the mistake of believing this statement.

Allah spoke the Prophets and righteous people of the past and he continues to speak today.

He hears and answers our prayers and has a direct link with his special servants like Hadrat Khalifatul Masih V (aba)

Fulfilling Our Rights To God

Knowing that God exists, we must fulfil our rights to him, by praying to him and being thankful to him for granting us life and answering our prayers.
