MAJLIS KHUDDAMUL AHMADIYYA UNITED KINGDOM
THEME OF THE YEAR 2025-2026

For many centuries and millennia, human beings have looked to the sky. First to the moon, then to the planets, and now even to the stars. By nature, human beings are not easily content; they struggle to find satisfaction. This longing has occupied the minds of scholars and philosophers throughout history, yet many of them were never able to attain true inner peace.

Across the ages, there have been individuals who were gifted with contentment, satisfaction in their lives, they discovered inner tranquillity and recognised their true purpose.

How beautifully the Promised Messiah (as) described this satisfaction when he said: ہمارا بہشت ہمارا خدا ہے “Our Paradise lies in our God.”

This is the theme given to Majlis Khuddamul Ahmadiyya UK for the year by Huzoor-e-Anwar (aba)—a theme especially relevant in an age marked by atheism, restlessness, materialism and uncertainty, where every person is searching for peace and fulfilment. The Promised Messiah (as) reminds us once again that:

“Our Paradise lies in our God.”
