Hadith

Hazrat Ibn Abbas ^{RA} narrates that:

Sahih Al-Bukhari, Hadith 6

"The Holy Prophet ﷺ was the most generous of all the people, and he used to reach the peak in generosity in the month of Ramadan when Gabriel met him. Gabriel used to meet him every night of Ramadan to teach him the Qur'an.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ was the most generous person, even more generous than the strong uncontrollable wind (in readiness and haste to do charitable deeds)."

My Umrah Journey

By Fauzaan Ali Qureshi
MAA Walton-on-Thames

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, Ever Merciful

Assalamu Alaikum. My Name is Fauzaan Qureshi. I am 13 years old and part of Majlis Atfalul Ahmadiyya Walton-on-Thames (in Bashir Region). I want to share my experience of my first time visiting Saudi Arabia and going to Umrah with my family.

Going on Umrah to Saudi Arabia was one of the most special experiences of my life. Seeing the Kaaba for the first time was one of the most beautiful and emotional moments and I was so grateful that Allah the Almighty had invited me at such a young age. The feeling of thousands of Muslims from all around the world was unforgettable.

First step of Umrah was to wear the Ihram on the plane crossing the Miqat (boundary). We performed seven tawaf around the Holy Kaaba and were able to drink some Zamzam water afterwards.

After Tawaf, we performed Sa'i between Safa and Marwah. This reminded me of the story of Hajar ^{AS} searching for water for her son, Prophet Ismail ^{AS}. It taught me about patience, trust in Allah, and never giving up.

Then the last and final step of my Umrah journey was going bald and shaving my head. Although it was a big sacrifice, I was proud as I did it for Allah. We left Makkah and headed to Madinah where we visited the Prophets mosque, Masjid al-Nabawi, the second holiest place in the world (after Masjid Al-Haram).

This is also Where the Prophet Muhammad ^{SA} blessed grave is located. During this time, we also visited Cave Hira, where the Holy Quran was revealed to Prophet Muhammad ^{SA}. I also had a good time at other areas in Saudi Arabia doing activities such as Camel riding, visiting museums and having many more amazing experiences.

This Umrah trip taught me gratitude. It reminded me that being able to visit these holy places is a blessing that not everyone gets. I learned to be more patient, more thankful, and more mindful of my prayers.

Umrah is not just about the physical acts of worship, but about changing your heart. I returned home feeling spiritually stronger and more connected to my faith. May Allah the almighty grant everyone the opportunity to visit Makkah and perform Umrah themselves and experience these blessings.
