FRIDAY SERMON - FRIDAY 22ND MAY 2026

Once, it was said the Holy Prophet (sa) he eats like a slave and sits as a slave does, for after all, he was a too. In other words, the Holy Prophet (sa) did not have the qualities of self-pride and ostentation as did other worldly rulers.

Once the Holy Prophet (sa) slept on a cot that left marks on his back. Some companions requested that they be allowed to make a softer bed for him. The Holy Prophet (sa) said that he was not concerned with the comforts of this world. He said he was like a who stops in the shade of a tree for a while, then leaves and moves on.

Once, an angel upon the Holy Prophet (sa) who had never descended upon anyone else before. This angel asked the Holy Prophet (sa) if he would be considered a King and Prophet or a servant and Messenger. Such was the humble nature of the Holy Prophet (sa) that he chose the option of being regarded as a servant and Messenger.
